

For international applicants — Online programs (no visa required) AMBS Admissions Application Fields

To assist you in preparing to complete the online AMBS Admissions application, the content of the application appears on the following five pages so that you can know which information you will be asked to supply. The application software will automatically save your work, so you can complete the form in installments if needed. Please note that this document is not the actual application form; applicants must use the online form.

We are pleased that you are considering Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary for graduate study. Please be aware that because of limited resources, we can only accept a certain number of international students who apply to pursue theological education at AMBS. Several factors are used in our decision-making process:

1. Is the student currently involved in a church ministry in his/her own country?
2. Does the student give evidence of adequate knowledge of the English language?
3. Does the student possess adequate qualifications to pursue graduate-level studies, including a bachelor's degree?

In addition to completing the form that begins below, please gather all of the following materials and submit them to the AMBS Admissions Office:

- References

See information on references below.

- Transcripts

Request that EACH academic institution you have attended send an official transcript directly to:

Background check

As a condition of admission, an applicant will be required to authorize Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary (AMBS) to obtain a background check. If the results of the background check are not deemed acceptable, AMBS will evaluate the results based on the nature of the violation and extenuating circumstances. (AMBS does not automatically deny admission based on minor offenses.)

Any information provided by the applicant regarding his or her background check will be included for consideration in his or her application for admission. If the applicant is admitted, AMBS will store a copy of the background check in the student's file in perpetuity, either on paper or digitally archived. If the applicant is not admitted, AMBS will store the entire application, including the background check, in the seminary's admissions files for a period of two years, after which the application will be destroyed in its entirety.

Admission to AMBS assumes a commitment on the part of every student to join and participate in a community devoted to theological education and preparation for ministry, worship, study and the life of Christian faith.
